

Beautiful Reflection: Journal your honest thoughts about what you are doing for Jesus that seems like a waste? Living in light of eternity, how does it change the way you feel? What is your most cherished possession that you can offer to the Lord? Because of your love for Jesus, what would make him say that you have done a beautiful thing for him?

journal date